San Mateo, CA - May 27, 2005

Arborwell and San Mateo Park HOA Work to Beautify Neighborhood

Arborwell, a leading provider of professional tree management and plant health care services, announced an agreement with the San Mateo Park Homeowners Association to donate the company's profits to supply tree maintenance and plant health care services to the neighborhood islands.

Under the agreement, in conjunction with San Mateo City Arborist, Dennis Pawl and San Mateo Park HOA President, Linda Boque, Arborwell will provide tree pruning services at cost to the San Mateo Park HOA. "These trees are what make the park special and many are historic trees. We feel it is important to preserve them for the current and future generations. Due to the city's lack of funds this year, we are pleased to provide this service as part of our 2005 Giving Back to the Community Program," commented Peter Sortwell, President of Arborwell and San Mateo homeowner.

Arborwell operates from three locations in San Mateo, Sacramento, and Castro Valley. Clients include golf courses, property management companies, corporate and educational campuses, landscape and general contractors, municipalities, government agencies and residential. Among other services Arborwell will provide tree relocation and transplanting, specification pruning, plant health care, tree and stump removal, tree inventories, tree appraisals, hazard assessments, and budgetary management plans. Serving the entire

San Francisco Bay Area, Arborwell offers enhanced service capabilities with 24-hour emergency service, an arsenal of cutting-edge equipment, and customer service representatives who are certified arborists with over 100 years combined experience.
