

Sycamore › Anthracnose

What Is It?

Leaf fungus

Treatment:

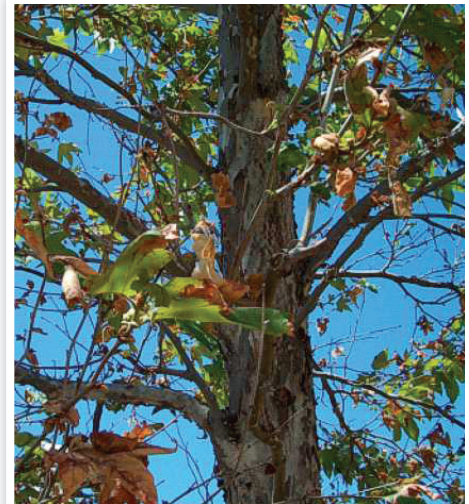

Foliar application or trunk injection

Timing:

- May through November - trunk injection most effective
- Early spring - foliar applications must be done at least twice in the season

Expected Results:

New leaf production; severely affected trees may take multiple years of treatment to improve

Leaf damage associated with anthracnose infection